

ABN The American Board of Professional Neuropsychology

June 1, 2013

Dear ABN Members and Fellows:

It's that time of year again. ABN dues are due July 1. The ABN BOD has updated some options to keep up with changing times, Bylaws and other criteria, as well as in response to some member feedback. So, PLEASE carefully read and select from the following membership classifications.

We request that members use an online, PayPal or fax payment option at www.ABN-Board.com. But, to pay by mail, return this form along with your dues to the Treasurer by July 1, 2013. Failure to pay dues will result in suspension of your ABN journals subscriptions and the website directory listing, as well as omission from the annual reports of members to the National Register and other organizations. Please complete the contact information in the space below to ensure that we have this up to date. (These are the address to which the journals, ballots and special correspondence will be forwarded.)
