To whom it may concern,

Please be advised that the American Psychological Association (APA) does not have a mechanism to sponsor, endorse or approve board certification organizations.

The APA has recently established a mechanism to recognize credentials obtained by psychologists for inclusion in the APA Membership Directory and will begin accepting applications from organizations this year.

The APA does approve organizations to provide continuing education for psychologists. The American College of Professional Neuropsychology, the educational entity of the American Board of Professional Neuropsychology, is an APA approved sponsor.

Sincerely,
